Automatic Personal Data Processing

Financial Market Services Ltd. does not automatically process personal data, based on which the company should make decisions that cause legal consequences for data subjects or similarly affect them to a significant extent.

How Long Do We Store Your Data?

The Company stores your data only for the minimum necessary time to achieve the objectives set out in this Policy unless we are required by law or have the right to store them for a longer period.

The data storage period is determined by several factors, including the duration of the services provided, if it is necessary to establish, exercise or protect our and/or your legal claims and inquiries, or if we have a legal obligation to store the data. Personal data that are collected and processed in fulfilment of a legal obligation that applies to the controller or in the exercise of official powers are stored for the period specified in the relevant law or for the statutory period of limitation. In this regard, Financial Market Services Ltd. should provide information services connected with regulated information disclosure for the time limits specified in the POSA.

Video surveillance data are stored for a short period - one month usually, unless a longer processing time is required to protect our legal claims - for example for further incident investigation.

Do We Share Your Data?

We provide some of the above-mentioned data to regulatory authorities, courts, state bodies to fulfil legal obligations. For example, the systems of Financial Market Services Ltd., given the information services they provide, are connected with the systems of the Financial Supervision Commission /the FSC/ and Bulgarian Stock Exchange /BSE/.

We share your personal information with third-party service providers who perform activities and functions on our behalf, such as hosting services or the services providing technical support or data analysis to our systems and websites. We do not authorise these third parties to use your information for purposes other than those for which they were provided, and these third parties have no right to disclose this information to others. We require these third parties to maintain adequate security to protect your information from unauthorised access or processing.

We may share your information with third parties only if we have received instructions from you in this regard or with your explicit prior consent.

We do not share, sell, borrow or trade your information with third parties, service providers or business partners for their purposes or direct marketing purposes.

How Do We Protect Your Rights?

We process your data only for the above purposes, grounds and deadlines. The Company makes every effort to protect your data from damage, loss, disclosure, misuse, intrusion, modification or destruction. To protect the confidentiality of the data, we apply physical, program-technical, organisational and administrative measures.

When we collect personal data, we do so in the minimum amount and only for clearly pre-defined purposes and storage periods. We restrict access to your personal information only to those who need this information to provide you with benefits or services. We grant access to the data only to a limited number of persons who are trained and instructed to deal with them.

Relationships Between Joint Data Controllers

For the provision of information services and for regulated information dissemination within the meaning of the POSA as well as other information in the Republic of Bulgaria and the EU Member States in a way that ensures the fulfilment of the legal obligations by public companies and other issuers of securities, Financial Market Services Ltd. on the one hand and public companies and other issuers of securities on the other hand act as joint personal data controllers including joint determination of the purposes and means of the data processing.

The joint data controllers define jointly the purposes of personal data processing as follows:

- Publication of information by public companies through the system of extri.bg
- Regulated information dissemination within the meaning of the POSA to the respective body, when there is a legal obligation to provide data to the public under the conditions of Art. 100s of the POSA
- Services and products providing and making contact regarding the created account or the use of the products, services and/or websites of Financial Market Services Ltd.
- Development, providing content, operation, delivery and offering of our services and websites
- Compliance with reporting and notification obligations to the competent under the applicable law
- Monitoring for security purposes and prevention of risks and fraud in connection with the offered products and services, the use of extri.bg website

- Improvement of the quality of services offered by Financial Market Services Ltd.
- Administering the relationships incl. legal relationships with you as a potential client or person to whom we provide information
- To protect our legal rights and interests in connection with the provided services, products, use of our websites or to protect against legal claims by third parties

Each of the controllers is obliged to indemnify the other party for any costs, liability and claims of any nature incurred by the other controller and arising from or in connection with any breach, act of negligence, error or omission of the guilty party, its employees or subcontractors in connection with or arising from the requirements of personal data protection and security.

When Financial Market Services Ltd. provides you with services in connection with its main scope of activity, namely to disseminate the regulated and other information provided by you in a way that ensures its prompt dissemination to the widest possible range of persons in the Republic of Bulgaria and all EU Member States in a way that does not discriminate against them, you agree that you should delete the personal data contained in the information you disseminate that are not necessary and go beyond the purposes for which they are processed following Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the Bulgarian legislation.

Financial Market Services Ltd. does not make any changes nor edits the information provided by you, distributing it unedited in full. Financial Market Services Ltd. is not responsible for the dissemination of information that does not meet the requirements of personal data protection but has been provided by you in a way that goes beyond the purposes for which it is processed. Financial Market Services Ltd. is entitled to seek responsibility from you for all damages suffered by the Company as a result of illegal processing of personal data, which led to imposing of measures and sanctions for violation of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and Bulgarian law.

What Are Your Rights As A Data Subject?

As a data subject, you have the right to request from the Company:

Access to your data, i.e. you have the right to know which of your data are processed by us. The company shall provide you, upon request, with a free copy of the processed personal data related to you. When submitting a request electronically, the controller shall provide the information in a widely used electronic form.

Correction, i.e. the right to request correction of your data stored by us if they are inaccurate or incomplete.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten'). You are entitled to request the erasure of personal data in the following cases:

- The personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed.
- The data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based and where there is no other legal ground for the processing.
- The personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject.

The right to erasure shall not apply to the extent that processing is necessary:

- for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information.
- for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.
- for reasons of public interest in the area of public health.
- for archiving purposes in the public interest, for scientific or historical researches or statistical purposes following Art. 89 (1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 in so far as the right to erasure is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing
- for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims

Restriction of processing of your personal information. If you need to check the accuracy of the data, the grounds or the legality of their processing, you can ask the controller to limit (stop) the processing of your data.

Objection to processing. Concerning data processed on the basis of a "legitimate interest", you have the right at any time and on grounds related to your specific situation to object to the processing. In the event of such an objection, the controller is obliged to terminate the processing of your personal information, unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to data portability i.e. to receive your personal information in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable form.

When processing is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.
